INTERVIEW WITH DOMINIK BINDER

Head of plastics processing & decoration

01. What brought you to GEKA and how has your career developed?

Which departments have you worked in?

I started as an apprentice process mechanic. Once I had successfully completed my apprenticeship, I worked as an adjuster in bottle production and then became shift foreman and deputy team leader of bottle production. In 2011 I was made team leader of this division and since August 2019 I've been in charge of the whole plastics division.

02. What exactly is your job at GEKA like?

I'm responsible for all technical, organisational and staffing matters in the plastics processing division.

03. What has been your best moment at GEKA?

When I was offered a permanent job after completing my apprenticeship.

04. What makes GEKA different from other companies?

My colleagues.

05. Which projects do you have particularly fond memories of?

The move to bottle production in hall 16.

06. Your job in three words.

varied, challenging, teamwork

07. Would you describe your job as your dream job?

I'm very happy with my job, I enjoy my work.

08. What has been your best decision in your career so far?

A training course to become a master.

09. What has been your biggest challenge so far? What are you particularly proud of?

Every day is a challenge. I'm proud to be where I am today.

10. Describe yourself in three words.

Flexible, dynamic, ambitious

11. What advice would you give to other employees?

Don't sweat the small stuff and instead try to push on with business objectives together and be successful together.

12. What for you is the secret of success for a good working environment?

Good colleagues and good cooperation.

13. What is your motto?

"Never give up"

14. Which is more important, work or pleasure?

Real enjoyment only comes through work.

15. What types of books do you have on your shelf – works of philosophy or comics?
Do you like reading? If so, what are you reading at the moment?

Sci-fi, fantasy and thrillers, for example "The Name of the Wind"

16. Who or what would you most like to be for a day?

I'm happy being myself and wouldn't want to be anyone else.

17. What talent would you most like to have?

The talent of "reading minds"

18. An underestimated trend?

Staying at home.

19. What do you enjoy most about your job?

Working together with my colleagues.

20. Why do you do the job you're currently doing?

It was fate.

21. What do you do to switch off from work (sport, etc.)?

My antidote is cycling, running, reading.
